Home

By Marilynne Robinson

Available Now

Home returns to the same town that was set of in Gilead Marilynne Robinson retells the story of the prodigal son. After 20 years, Jack Boughton returns to reunite with his father, the Reverend Boughton. Jack, however, returns with many secrets after years of hell-raising and drinking. While at odds with his traditional father, who loves Jack as a favored son, Jack continues to try to make peace. Through his trials Jack manages to bond with his sister, Glory, who has come home with a broken heart. Home is a brilliant book about the healing of broken families.

Under the Dome

By Stephen King

Coming 11/10/09

On an entirely normal, beautiful fall day in Chester's Mill, Maine, the town is inexplicably and suddenly sealed off from the rest of the world by an invisible force field. Planes crash into it and fall from the sky in flaming wreckage, a gardener's hand is severed as "the dome" comes down on it, people running errands in the neighboring town are divided from their families, and cars explode on impact. No one can fathom what this barrier is, where it came from, and when—or if—it will go away

Dale Barbara, Iraq vet and now a short-order cook, finds himself teamed with a few intrepid citizens—town newspaper owner Julia Shumway, a physician's assistant at the hospital, a select-woman, and three brave kids. Against them stands Big Jim Rennie, a politician who will stop at nothing—even murder—to hold the reins of power, and his son, who is keeping a horrible secret in a dark pantry. But their main adversary is the Dome itself. Because time isn't just short. It's running out.
